

A Tea Room with a difference

The Horseshoe Tea Room in the Galleywood Heritage Centre is so named to reflect the centre's horse racing heritage – the building is a conversion of a 1920s grandstand.

4pm. Galleywood Heritage Centre holds monthly talks and the tea room is also open before and after the talk, so times may vary. The tea room will be catering for the free Wildlife event on Sunday 15th May and for the Galleywood Festival Craft Fair and Fun Day on Sunday 22nd May.

Please check by telephone before making a specific journey or subscribe to the monthly e-mail newsletter (mail@galleywoodheritagecentre.org.uk) for details of planned events and tea room open dates.

Galleywood Heritage Centre is a registered Charity and volunteers to serve in the tea room or help at fund raising events are welcomed. Please contact the centre for more details.

The tea room, located on Galleywood Common, is staffed by volunteers and offers light refreshments and beverages. Walkers on the common and visitors to the Heritage Room are welcome and can enjoy hot and cold drinks, delicious cakes and in the summer months, ice cream. There is ample seating inside the main hall, outside on the patio and in the garden – a peaceful setting, where a wide variety of birds can be seen amongst the trees and nearby woodland.

At some of the centre's special events, other food is served, such as soup and ploughman's lunches, whilst an outdoor barbecue provides delicious cheeseburgers, beef burgers and hot dogs, with all meat being sourced from local butchers.

The tea room can be accessed directly from Galleywood Common via the back gate – a sign outside indicates when it is open. There is a free public car park on the Common, sign posted off Margarettig Road, and parking is also available at the Heritage Centre itself. There is disabled access to the building.

At present the Horseshoe tea room is open on some Tuesday afternoons between 2pm and
