

The Harvard Inn

The Harvard Inn, set in the idyllic village of Stock, is a restaurant and wine bar that also boasts luxury accommodation. Dating back to the 15th century the building is a central part of the village history, and is full of charming character.

The inn has recently been fully refurbished to an extremely high standard and offers superb food, wines and beers in a stylish setting, plus luxurious accommodation, all of which make The Harvard Inn the ideal location for any occasion.

Whether enjoying a meal with friends, staying in one of our luxury rooms or hosting an event, the inn is the perfect venue, and we will work tirelessly to meet all your requirements.

Visitors to The Harvard can enjoy the finest gourmet food, from menus created to suit every taste. Our chefs work in partnership with local suppliers to utilise the freshest and best seasonal produce in the creation of their high-quality dishes. The specials we serve daily take our diners on a culinary journey to another part of the world through enticing flavours and aromas.

Whatever the occasion may be, you need look no further for your event venue: at The Harvard Inn we cater for every need. Our restaurant seats up to 56 people, and, if you're bringing more to the party, the wine bar and restaurant can be combined to accommodate up to 150 guests. You are welcome to meet with our chefs to create the perfect bespoke menu for your event.

You and your guests can be certain of a great night's sleep in one of our eleven comfortable bedrooms. All rooms are beautifully decorated, in a classic style with a contemporary twist. Breakfast is included in an overnight stay, and we guarantee you won't want to miss out on the Harvard breakfast – the perfect way to start the day!
